

If You Believe

That government works for the people, not the other way around – you are a Republican

That it is your own personal responsibility to be the provider for your family – not the government's – you are a Republican

That we are better off fighting terrorists thousands of miles from our shores not in New York City, Washington, DC or in the plains of Pennsylvania– you are a Republican

That it is the President of the United States as our Commander in Chief's responsibility to defend America and not to defer it to the United Nations– you are a Republican

That America is the greatest country in the history of civilization and we do not need France or Germany's or anyone else's permission to defend her– you are a Republican

That our soldiers are the true heroes of today and not some lying hateful Hollywood movie director like Michael Moore– you are a Republican

That our men and women in uniform are fighting to defend America and that they are not the terrorists, the other guys are the terrorists and they are the bad guys – you are a Republican

That a woman does have a right to choose but her choices do not include killing an innocent, defenseless unborn child 30 days from birth – you are a Republican

That marriage is a covenant between a man and a woman and their God– you are a Republican

That you should support the party that fought to free the slaves, not the one that wanted to maintain the atrocities of slavery and keep the slaves in bondage– you are a Republican

That all Americans, regardless of their skin tone or economic status have certain undeniable civil rights and you do not support the party that fought against recognizing those rights- you are a Republican

If you believe our border issue is not an immigration issue but rather an illegal immigration issue - you are a Republican

If you believe that God does not need the ACLU's permission to be anywhere – because He is already there – you are a Republican

And as a Republican – you are part of the party of Abraham Lincoln, the party of Teddy Roosevelt, the party of Ronald Reagan....

VOTE ACCORDINGLY

By Fermin Ortiz - Llano County Republican Party Chairman